If we want to teach parents, we must first listen to what they have to teach us.

Parent Input and The Law

The Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (ESEA) requires that parents are to be "afforded substantial and meaningful opportunities to participate in the education of their children."

www.gadoe.org

Parent Input and The Law

There are over ten different roles described in law:

"advice and recommendation"

"school district shall work with"

"evaluation and review of [plans]"

"input being sought"

"in participation with"

"in partnership with"

"in consultation with"***

"opportunity to submit comments"***

\ Denotes more than one similar phrase*

Parent Input and The Law

All parents of eligible Title I children must be provided the opportunity to provide feedback and input into and on the:

- District Parental Involvement Policy
- School Parental Involvement Policy
- Title I Targeted Assistance Plan
- Title I Schoolwide Plan
- School Improvement Plan
- Comprehensive LEA Improvement Plan (CLIP)
- Title I Funds/Parental Involvement Set-Aside
- Annual Assessment/Evaluation of Title I Program

Why Parent Input Matters

Parents Work
More Closely
With Their Children Than
Other Adults Can

Involved parents not only help their own child, but all children in a school

Parents provide critical input that only they can bring;
They know their child better than anyone else

Parents are the only adults in the educational process
who have been and will continue to be deeply involved
throughout the child's school career

While parents may not be educators themselves, they bring their years
of experience in other professions
and aspects of life
to the process

Parent Input and You

WITH A PARTNER DISCUSS

- How does your school or district gather parent input?
- Do many parents participate and provide input?
- How is that input used?

Campaigning for Parent Input: Inform

Inform

Simplify

Personalize

Provide information to parents
- hook them with a problem in which they are the answer

Select an issue of relevancy and urgency to parents

Explain why parents are needed, what their role is and what is in it for them

Campaigning for Parent Input: Inform School – Parent Compact Example

The students in our school are struggling with mathematics and your child needs your help to succeed this year.

Come learn about what you can do to ensure your child graduates on time in the Class of 2025 as we discuss the School-Parent Compact.

---

Your child needs your help and your child's school needs your input. You matter.

Campaigning for Parent Input: Inform School Parental Involvement Policy Example

Family engagement is one of the most powerful influences on children's success in school.

Come help your child succeed this year at school by reviewing the school's parental involvement policy and giving input into how the school spends its Title I Parental Involvement money.

You know best what your child needs to succeed, come share that information with us!

Campaigning for Parent Input: Consult

Consult

Mobilize

Actualize

Seek parent reaction, input and review – listen and discuss

Utilize conventional and unconventional methods to reach parents

Seek strategies that engage parents in meaningful, interactive discussion that matters

Mobilize

To recruit the most parent input, consider:

- ✓ Time of meeting
- ✓ Place of meeting
- ✓ Advance notice of meeting
- ✓ Marketing of meeting
- ✓ Structure of meeting
- ✓ Advertisement of meeting
- ✓ Childcare, transportation or food at meeting
- ✓ Type of meeting
